

AP European History Course Selection Guidelines

Enrollment is open to:	Sophomores, Juniors, Seniors Reading Sample Can earn college credit based on results of AP exam in May
Typical number of reading pages assigned per week:	30-40
Length of Course	Full Year
Percentage of tested concepts discussed in class:	60%
Amount of text based independent learning students will be responsible for:	40%
Summer Reading Assignment	Yes
Content taught in the course	The course provides a college level survey of European History using a chronological approach (1450 to the present). Emphasis is placed on historical themes, some of which include political/diplomatic events, intellectual development, cultural evolution, economic and social trends. Significant writing and research will be an integral part of the course work.
Skills essential to success:	AP European history would be good for you if you: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>•enjoy reading and learning about history.</li> <li>•have a passion for historical analysis and argumentation.</li> <li>•have regular school attendance and when you are absent.</li> <li>•communicate to get assignments and complete them promptly.</li> <li>•learning independently and seek out help when you are struggling.</li> <li>•manage long-term assignments in addition to daily homework.</li> <li>•are a confident and capable writer.</li> <li>•have been successful in a freshman AP or honors course.</li> </ul>

